INTELLIGENCE MEMORANDUM

Situation in the Dominican Republic
(Spot Report #37 - 9:20 am EDT)

There was heavy firing in the town of San Juan de la Maguana last night.

[redacted] the firing lasted about fifteen minutes. Shortly after the incident, tanks moved into place around the police headquarters in the town. About 50 people sought refuge in a hotel and as of late last night they were afraid to go home. [redacted] while the city as a whole was calm, the people were nervous.

San Juan de la Maguana, which is in the mountainous southwestern part of the country, was the scene of rebel attacks against the police headquarters and an army barracks on 2 June.
